

The Nutrition Group and Washington School District will be offering afterschool meals to school-age children in the Community. The program is free and open to all students (7th grade through 12th grade) who are 18 years of age or younger at the start of the 2022-2023 school year.

Students must be attending regularly scheduled, organized, structured activities in a supervised environment. These would include educational or enrichment activities such as Tutoring, athletics, musical/drama, etc.

Meals will be served at the following locations:

Washington Junior/Senior High School

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, nation origin, sex, age, disability, and reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, and American Sign Language) should contact the responsible State or local Agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-26—(voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a complainant should complete a Ford AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complain form, which can be obtained online at www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/usda-program-discrimination-complaint-form.pdf, from any USDA office by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

Mail:
